

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT RAYMOND C. ROBLES

Chief Master Sergeant Robles is the Command Chief Master Sergeant, 146th Airlift Wing, Channel Islands Air National Guard Station, California. He serves as the principal advisor to the Wing Commander on all matters influencing the health, morale, welfare, and professional development of more than 1,000 Air Guardsmen.

Chief Robles joined the California Air National Guard in 1991 as an Air Transportation Apprentice. A year later after completion of technical school, he was assigned to the 146th Aerial Port Operations Squadron, 146th Airlift Wing. Following completion of his upgrade training, he transitioned to supporting counter-drug operations along the Southwest border of the United States. Additionally, he served under the Air Mobility Command Inspection Team performing inspections until 2011. He has deployed worldwide on numerous occasions in various leadership roles in support of Operation ENDURING FREEDOM, IRAQI FREEDOM, and NOBLE EAGLE. Currently, he is an advisory board member to the California State Partnership Program in Ukraine and Nigeria.

Amidst the State of California's unprecedented state emergencies in response to COVID-19, civil unrest, and substantial wild fires, Chief Robles led humanitarian missions assisting local food banks, medical facilities, and civil unrest mitigation efforts.

Prior to this assignment, he served as the Superintendent, 146th Maintenance Group, Channel Islands Air National Guard Station, California.
